Dear Friends in Jewish communities all around the globe,

I wish, through this note, to acknowledge and express my appreciation for your support and assistance, enabling me to spread Torah knowledge, and to prepare Torah scholars to serve the community at large as rabbis or judges, or to master and become fluent in the secrets of Kabbalah. Furthermore, you sponsor our charity foundation that supports many needy families, and you sponsor other humanitarian projects directed through our holy yeshiba, Shubi Nafshi. You have demonstrated your inbred thirst for performing acts of charity and kindness.

On behalf of the hakhamim of the yeshiba, its students in the bet midrash, and the families that are supported by your generosity, I wish to thank all of you from the bottom of my heart for your wonderful gesture. You have displayed boundless love for the Torah and for your fellow Jews, and you have shown your strong desire to continue offering assistance at all times. You have stood by my side to ensure success in our projects to benefit the community at large and individual persons throughout world Jewry.

I therefore spread my hands in sincere prayer to our Creator, Who is One and Whose Name is One, Who has the ability to repay you for the wonderful deeds that you do for me and for the nation of Yisrael.

I pray that the Blessed Holy One will grant you success in all your endeavors, and that He will grant you your every wish in a good way. He will protect you and yours with His merciful Eye, so that you will never suffer, not in matters of health or of finance. He will continuously bestow His goodness on you and on all members of your families, Amen and may it be so.

With my deepest love and appreciation,

Ezriel Mansour
